KANSAS STATE NEWS.

At the annual meeting of the Kansas Dental association, held at Fort Scott, officers were elected as follows: President, Dr. G. T. Carpenter, of Girard; first vice-president, Dr. W. A. Coston, of Fort Scott; second vice-president, Dr. T. E. Turner, Neosho, Mo.; secretary and treasurer, Dr. E. P. Mossman, Oswego.

Four convicts, David Boney, William Britton, James Purcell and Samuel Murray, alias Frank Binley, escaped from the Fort Leavenworth military prison before daylight the other morning. They got away by cutting through a floor into the prison kitchen, then used a skeleton key to gain the yard and finally scaled the prison wall.

The Union Pacific railway has gathered up reliable statistics from the thirty-six counties in Kansas through which it runs. From these statistics it is estimated that the total acreage of the corn crop of the state is 5,200,050 acres. The general average yield is placed at thirty-two bushels per acre, which makes the total crop 166,401,000 bushels.

Joseph England, one of the wealthiest farmers in Shawnee county, fell into a cistern on his homestead near Tecumseh, the other morning and was killed. It is supposed that while drawing water from the cistern he was overcome by dizziness, to which he was subject. He owned three or four farms in the county. He was forty-nine years old and leaves a wife and three children.

Statistics gathered at Topeka show that the total number of mortgages recorded in fifty-four counties for the four months preceding September 1 aggregated $4,683,805; released, $6,270,270; excess of releases, $1,686,465, or 26 1/2 per cent. At the same ratio the gain would be in excess of $5,000,000 for the year and for the seventy-four counties east of the 100th meridian it would be $7,000,000.

J. M. Knight has brought suit for $100,000 damages in the circuit court at Topeka against the Kansas undertakers' trust, which has, through its system of boycotting, kept him from doing business. Knight opened business in Topeka but has been unable to buy a hearse or undertakers' supplies because other establishments notified dealers that if they sold to him they would do no business in Kansas. The constitution of the undertakers' association limits the number of undertakers in the state to one to each 10,000 inhabitants, and no more are permitted to engage in the business.

The world's fair stockholders recently had a meeting at Topeka and elected a board of managers of nine members to take charge of the world's fair and arrange for the Kansas display. About $50,000 is in sight, making the display an assured fact. The managers elected are as follows: At large, A. W. Smith, of McPherson, and Fred Willhouse, of Fairmount. First district, Col. W. A. Harris, of Linwood. Second district, Capt. R. W. Sparr, of Lawrence. Third district, Col. E. H. Brown, of Girard. Fourth district, Col. A. S. Johnson, of Topeka. Fifth district, W. H. Smith, of Marysville. Sixth district, William Simpson, of Norton. Seventh district, O. E. Hildreth, of Newton.

Mrs. Juvenal, wife of J. M. Juvenal, of Armourdale, died recently from the effects of poison that had been put into the water cooler and family groceries. Juvenal and several other members of the household were also poisoned, but saved by prompt medical aid. Mr. and Mrs. Juvenal had been married only a little over three months. Their wedded life had not been a quiet one. Juvenal had been divorced from his first wife only ten days when he married his second wife. One night several weeks ago an attempt was made to blow up the Juvenal home by dynamite, and a young woman, who, it is alleged, Juvenal had declined to marry, was placed under bonds to answer for the deed. Altogether it was a mixed and mysterious affair.

At the recent convention of bankers, held at Kansas City, Kan. The following officers were elected: President, Calvin Hood, Emporia; secretary, John A. Swenson, Linsborg; treasurer, S. H. Lanyon, Pittsburg; assistant secretary, H. F. Ball, Topeka; vice-presidents, R. H. Crosby, Valley Falls; H. J. Smith, Ottawa; Alexander Warner, Baxter Springs; J. A. Lamar, Mankato; S. A. Fulton, Marysville; E. L. Meyer, Hutchinson; Edward Carroll, Leavenworth; W. Hetherington, Atchinson; H. H. Gardner, Eldorado; R. Morey, Scandia; J. W. Rush, Larned; C. W. Trickett, Kansas City, Kan.; M. W. Loy, Wichita; P. G. Noel, Topeka; C. P. Drake, Fort Scott. John R. Mulvane, of Topeka, was selected as the association's representative to the American Bankers' association convention to be held at New Orleans in November.

At the late meeting of the state temperance union at Topeka the following officers were chosen for the coming year: President, James A. Troutman, of Topeka; vice-president, D. C. Milner, of Manhattan; secretary, F. O. Popenoe, of Topeka; treasurer, Samuel T. Howe. Executive committee, Samuel T. Howe, A. H. Vance, R. Kelly and Mrs. D. A. Thurston, of Topeka; W. H. Stout, of Fort Scott; Samuel Detwiler, of Hiaratha; A. S. Embree, of Leavenworth; S. B. Fleming and H. W. Lewis, of Wichita; Charles W. Dewolf, of Garnett; L. A. Davis, of Newton, and Miss Aruda, of Pleasanton.

THE GRAIN SHORTAGE.

New York, Sept. 21.—An aggressive study of the world's food supply, is the forthcoming number of the American Agriculturist, declares that the half has not yet been told about the European shortage in breadstuffs, which not even a bountiful crop this year would have relieved.

Continental powers, especially in Russia, suppress the facts as far as possible. In many Russian provinces the scarcity of food became pronounced as far back as February last. In the Konstantinovka district many families have not cooked a meal since Easter, but subsisted on bread, soaked rye, grain, etc., bestowed in charity. The prohibition of rye exports is followed by a ukase forbidding the shipment of bran and other cereal cattle foods. The astounding shortage in Russia's yield of rye, announced a month since by the ministry of finance, proves even greater than the most extravagant estimates and effectually obliterates all possibility of Russia exporting any of her scant wheat crop.

That eastern Germany is in practically the same plight admits of no doubt. The European reserves that have heretofore eked out insufficient harvests are everywhere exhausted. The parade made by Russia of the existence of stores in the Baltic provinces is done for effect—to convey the impression that military stores are abundant. Such reserves are of small importance. Indeed, the danger of famine is destined to spare Europe the horrors of war for fully a twelve month hence.

Accepting the largest estimates of production, both home and abroad, and even assuming that the United States and Canada export 225,000,000 bushels there is a deficit in the world's food supply of at least 200,000,000 bushels of wheat and rye, with a possibility of the shortage being twice as great.

Added to this is the almost total failure of the potato crop in Ireland and a serious curtailment in the yield of potatoes in the continent. Even with the utmost economy of distribution and an unheard of consumption of American maize, grave distress is before the masses of Europe.

The enormous exports of wheat and flour from the United States in August prove that Europe regards the situation as worse than it has yet been painted. Otherwise why should she buy in a single month close upon the harvest nearly half as much wheat as she took from the United States during the entire first eight months of the year following one of the largest wheat crops and a period of bed rock prices. August wheat exports were almost treble those of the same month of last year, and over four times as much as the average exports at this season last year.

For the first time in years wheat, bran and middlings are being exported to Europe thus early in the season. These circumstances are accepted as the strongest possible reason for believing that prices of wheat are unnaturally low. It looks for a sharp advance in all cereals as soon as the demand realizes the limited extent of the world's actual supply. Every bushel of high grade wheat is worth fully $1 on the farm where it grew. One of the most marked features of the prosperity that is already upon American agriculture, noted by the same magazine, is the extent to which farmers are planning to unite in cooperative buying and selling.

END OF BALMACEA.

The Defeated and Disgraced Ex-President of Chili Commits Suicide.

NEW YORK, Sept. 21.—The Herald's Valparaiso cablegram states that ex-President Balmaceda, of Chili, shot himself through the temple in his room at the Argentine legation in Santiago Saturday morning. The story became known in Valparaiso in the afternoon and created the greatest excitement. In the evening the city was brilliantly illuminated and on every hand was heard the sounds of rejoicing.

It now seems that the story that Balmaceda escaped from Valparaiso in the United States steamer San Francisco was erroneous. Instead he left Santiago on August 29 in hope of escaping from the country, but finding every avenue closed returned to the city September 2 and went direct to the Argentine legation. Since then he was in an extremely nervous condition. No one save the minister of the Argentine republic and one other man devoted to Balmaceda was permitted to see him.

About 8 o'clock Saturday morning Senor Urriburua heard a pistol shot in Balmaceda's bed room and rushing there found that the ex-president had put a bullet into his brain. The body was undressed and lay on the bed. The revolver was still grasped in his right hand. The junta was notified and a committee immediately went to the house and viewed the body.

As the news spread about Santiago great crowds of people gathered around the Argentine legation. They cheered, hooted and went into a frenzy over the death of their chief enemy. Above all the discordant shouts were heard cries congratulating the unfortunate Balmaceda that in taking his own life he had escaped a worse fate.

Balmaceda's body has been removed to the general cemetery. It was accompanied by the members of the family and friends.

Ex Congressman Scott Dead.

NEWPORT, R. I., Sept. 21.—Ex-Congman W. L. Scott, of Pennsylvania, died suddenly before midnight Saturday night. He was brought here about two weeks ago from his home in Erie, suffering with acute gastric intestinal catarrh. A slight throat trouble occurred Thursday. Friday and Saturday afternoon he had an attack of the heart failure. Another attack occurred at 11 o'clock, from which he could not be revived, and death came soon.

Mr. Scott was born in Washington July 2, 1832 and was said to be worth $20,000,000.
